FINDINGS AND ORDER

THE COURT FINDS:

- The defendant(s) named in the application cannot with reasonable diligence be served in any manner specified in Code of Civil Procedure, Article 3.
- (a) A cause of action exists against the defendant(s) named in the application; and/or (b) defendant(s) named in the application has or claims an interest in real property in California that is subject to the jurisdiction of the court; and/or (c) the relief demanded in the complaint consists wholly or partially in excluding the defendant(s) from any interest in the property.

THE COURT ORDERS:

The defendant(s) named in the application may be served by posting a copy of the summons and complaint on the premises in a manner most likely to give actual notice to the defendant(s), and by immediately mailing, by certified mail, a copy of the summons and complaint to the defendant(s) at his/her last known address.
